O Master
let me walk with Thee

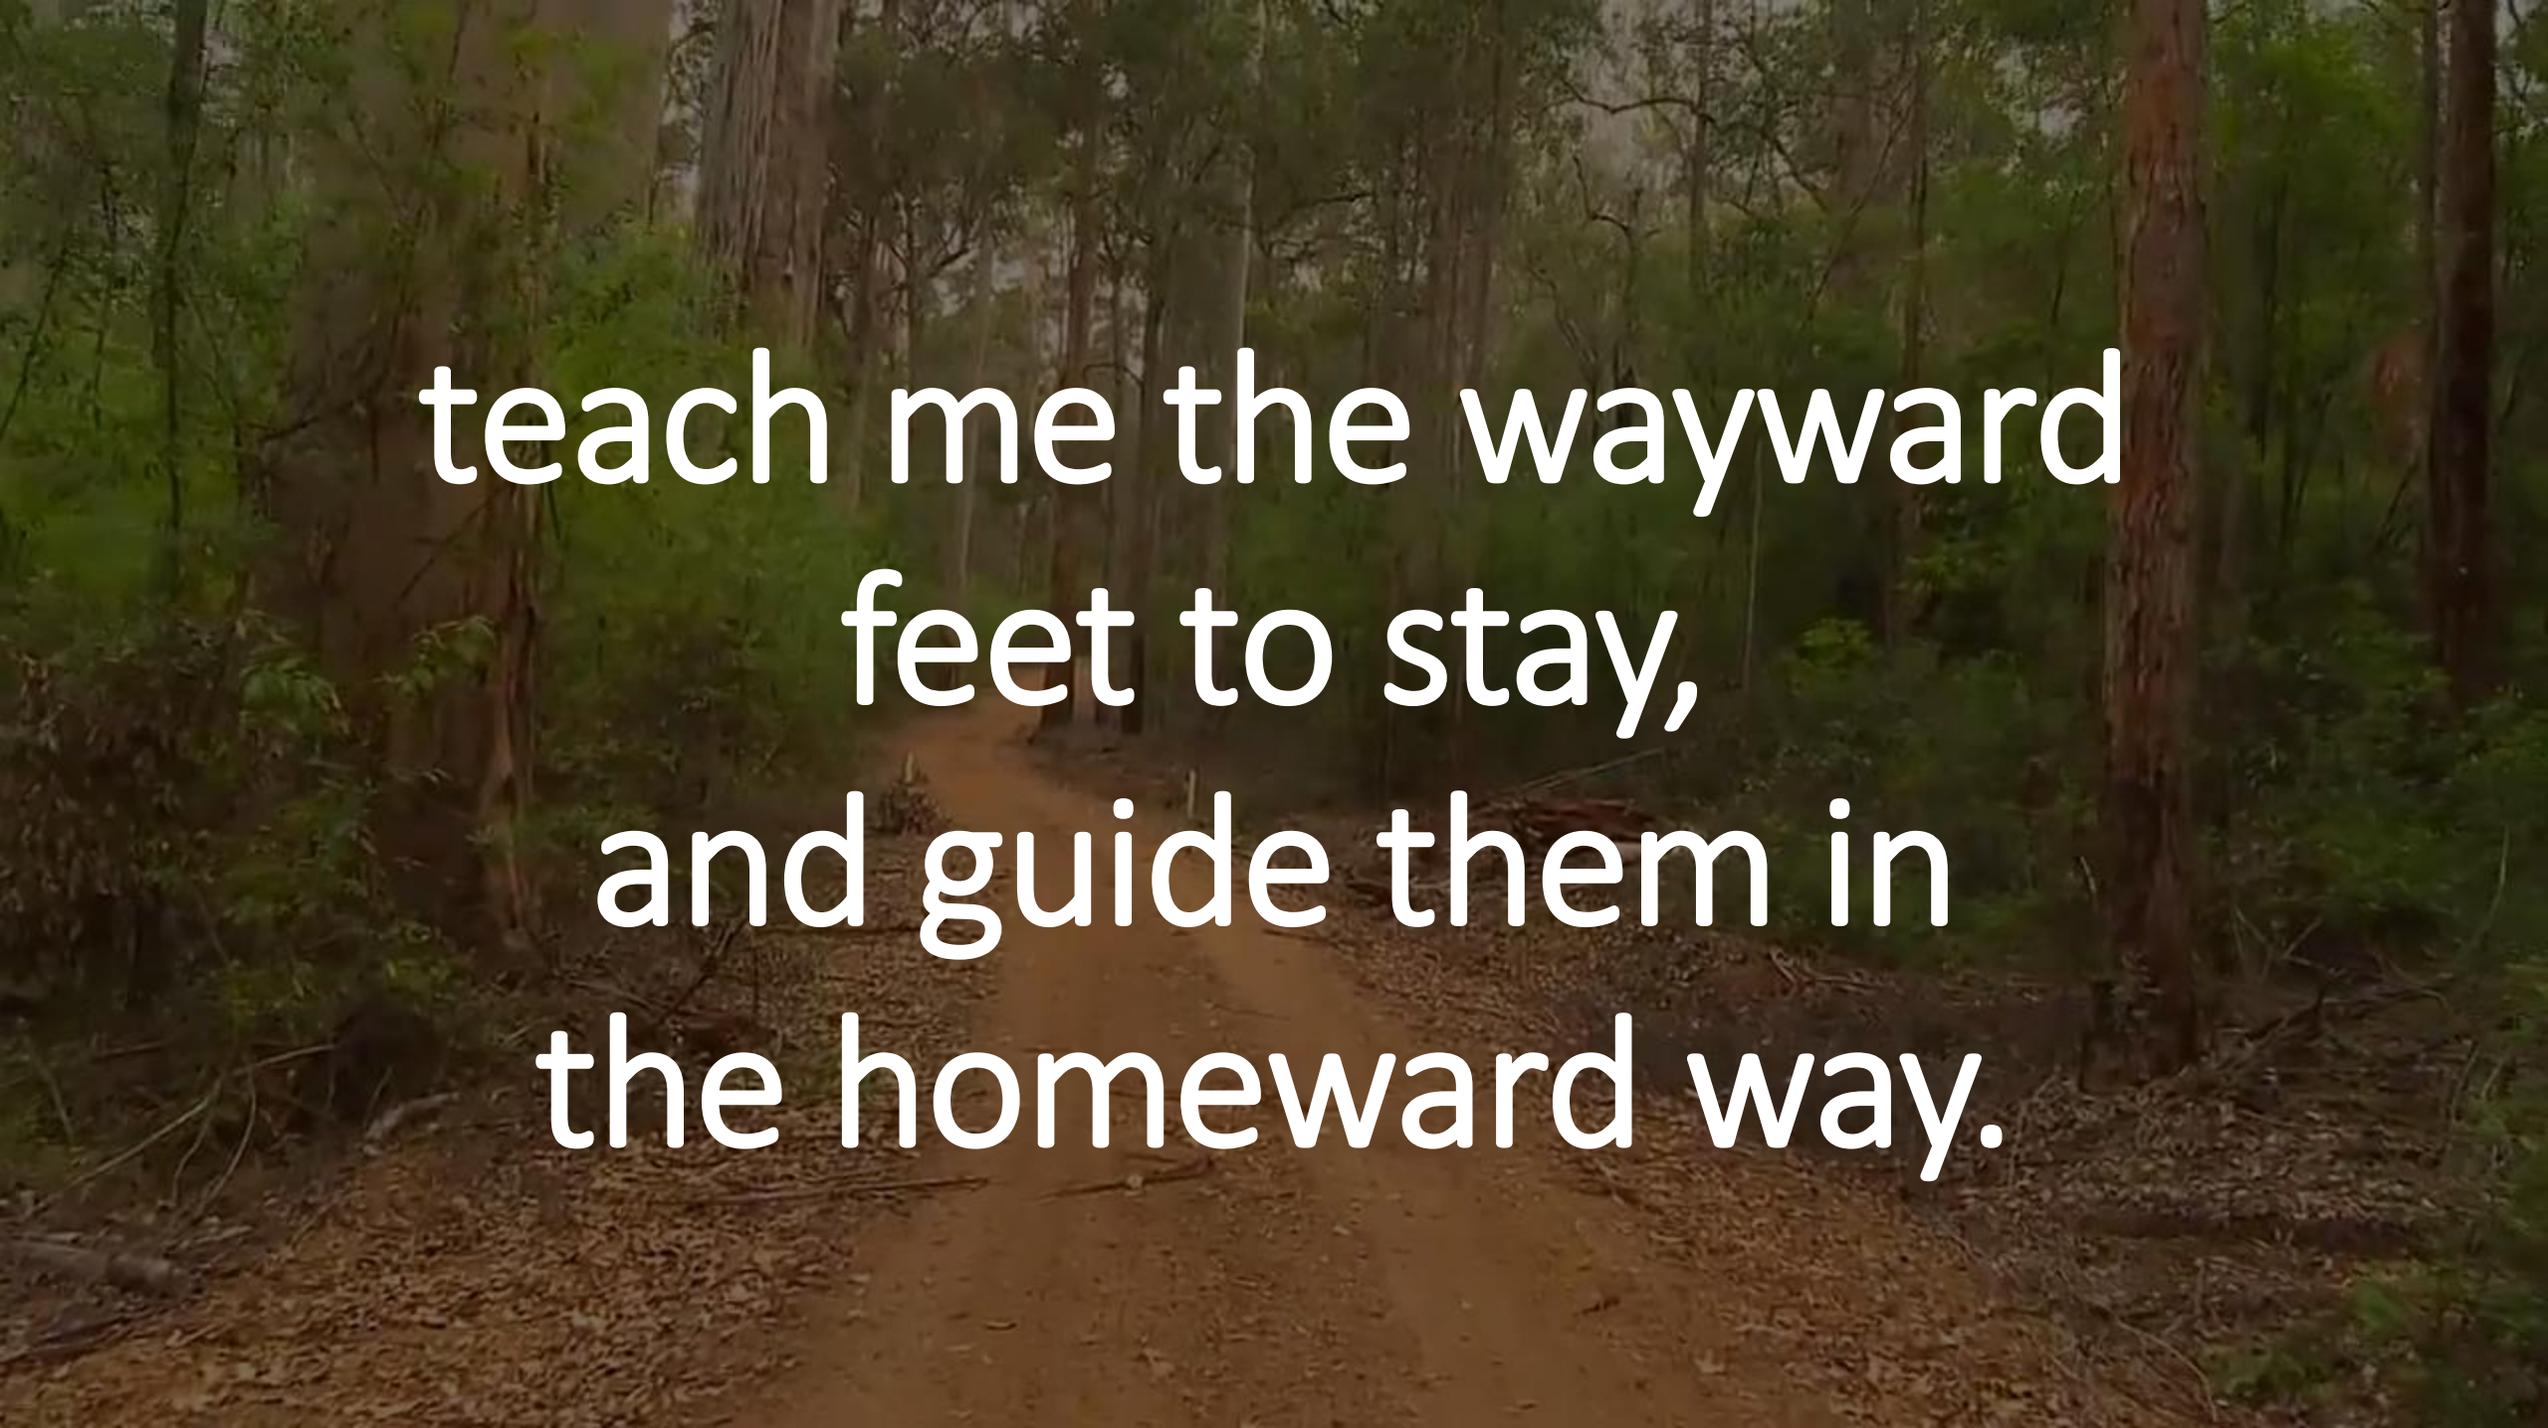

O Master, let me
walk with Thee
in lowly paths
of service free;

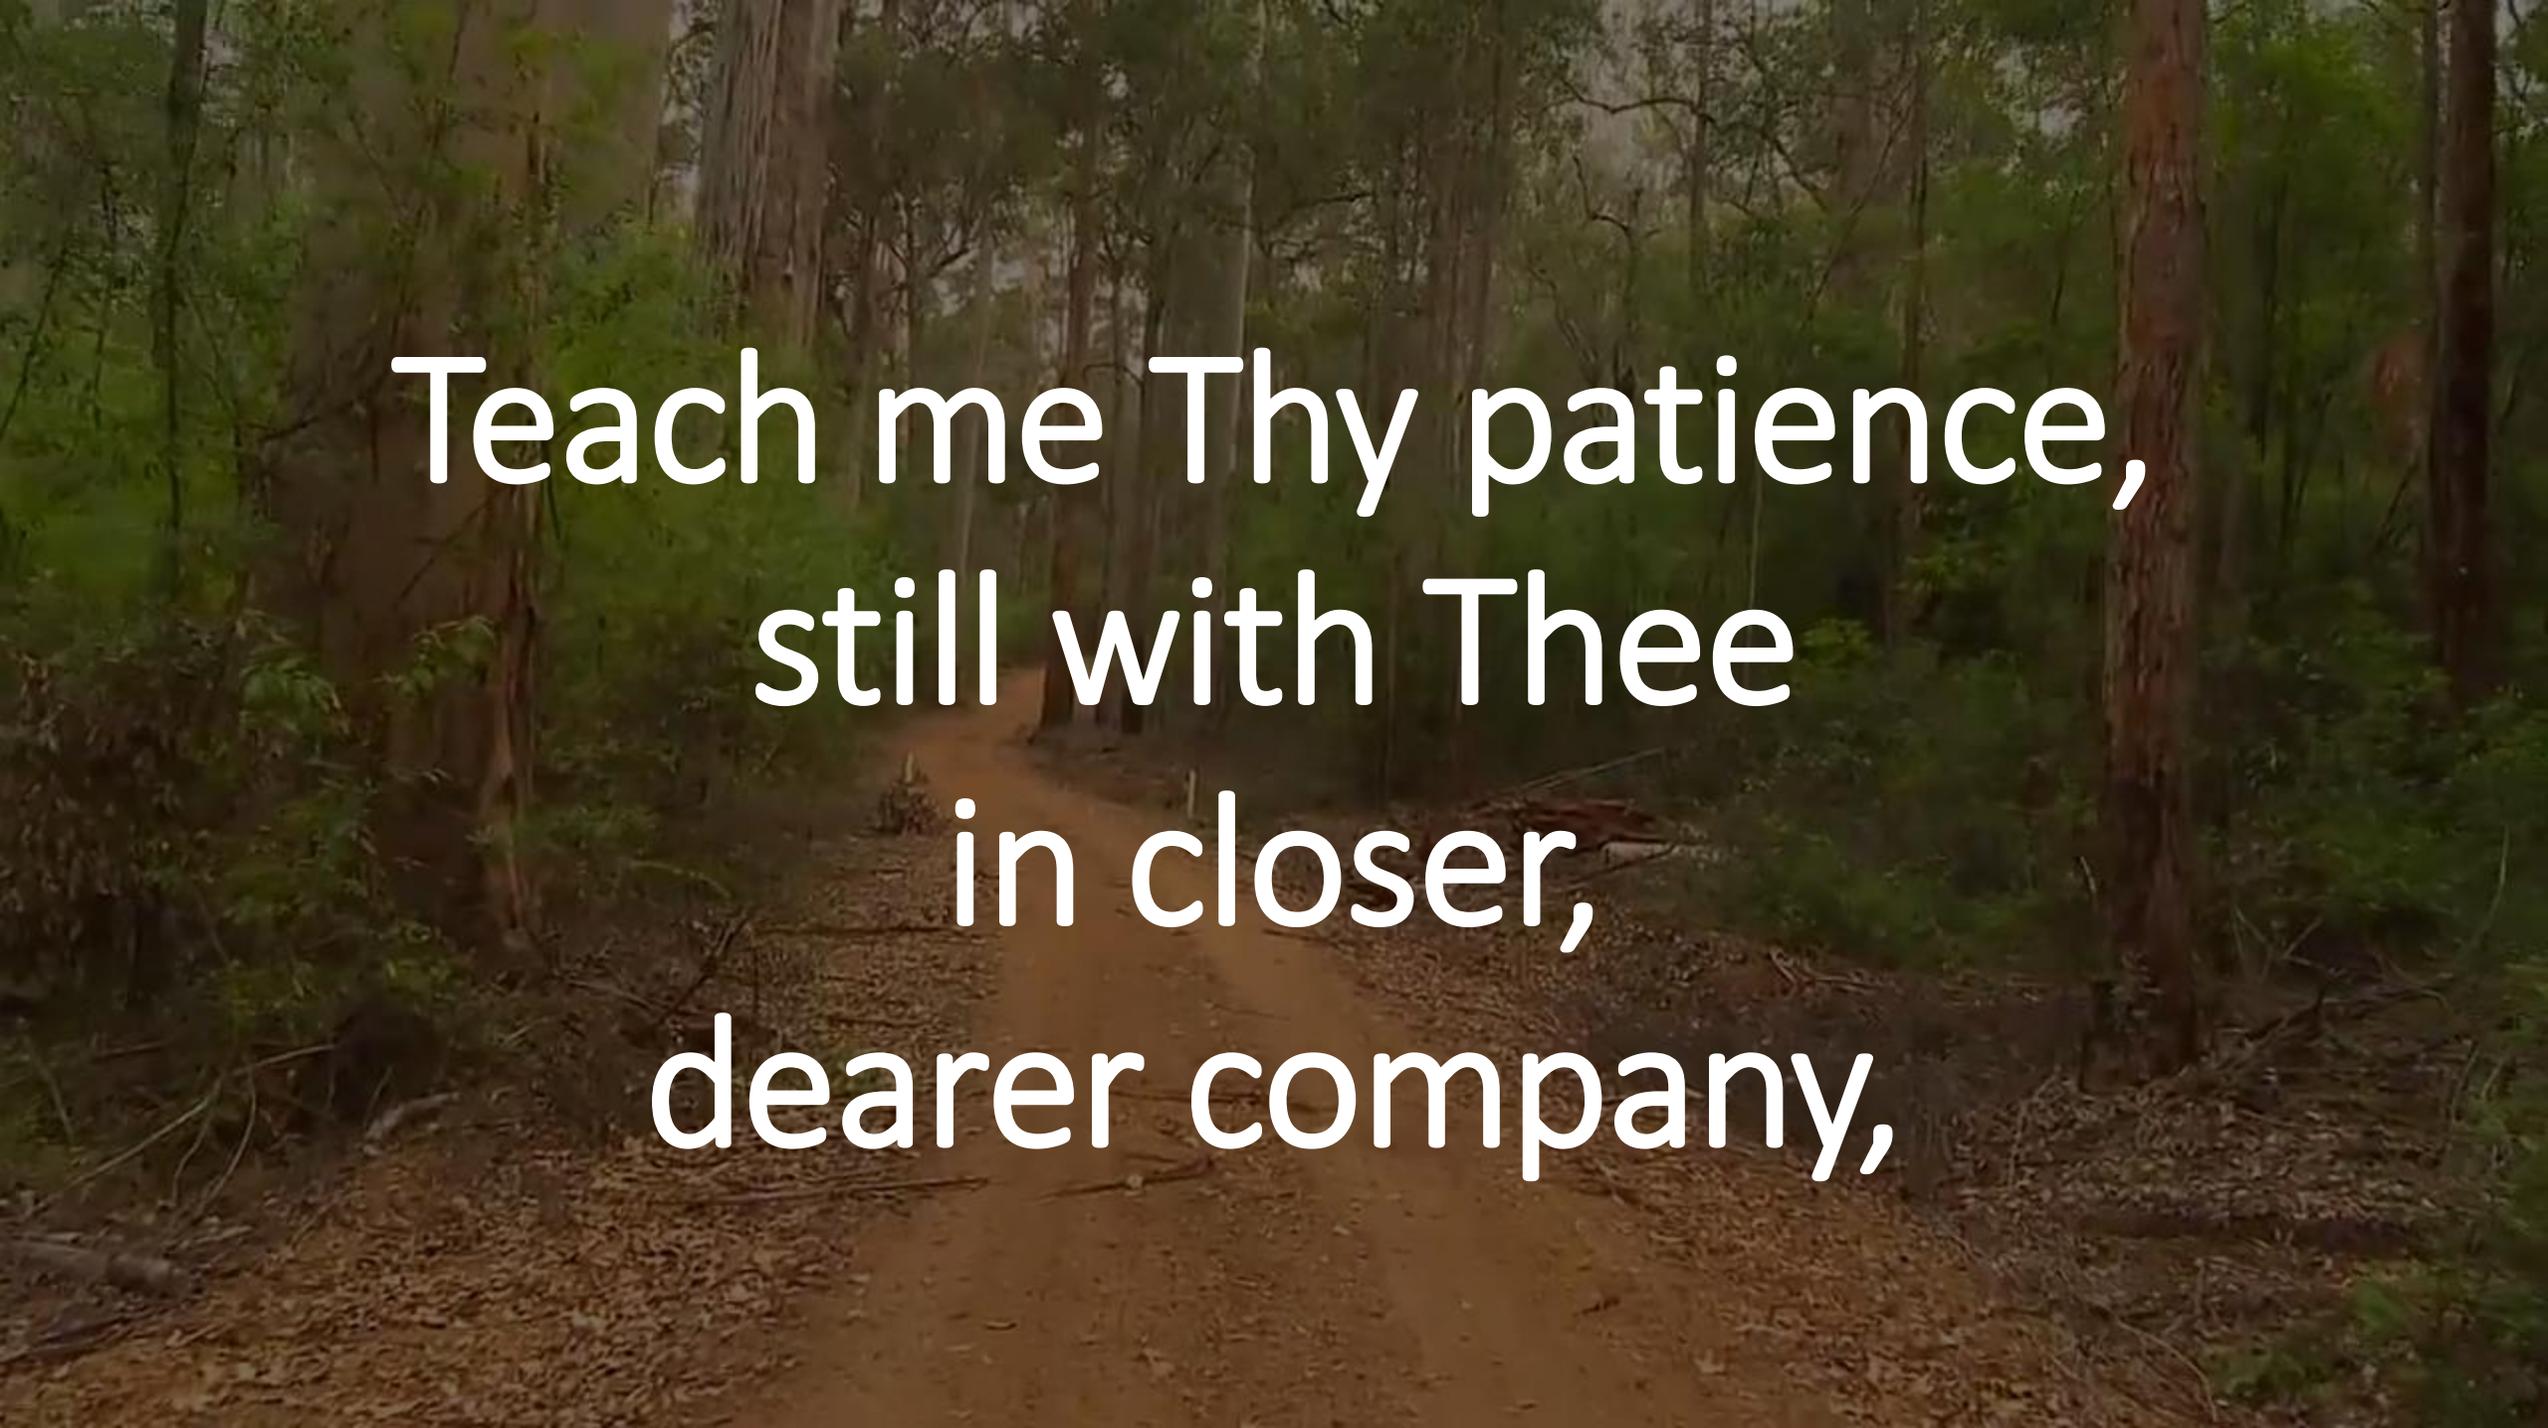

tell me Thy secret;
help me bear
the strain of toil,
the fret of care.

A dirt path winds through a forest with many trees and green foliage. The path is covered in brown leaves and twigs. The text is overlaid in the center of the image.

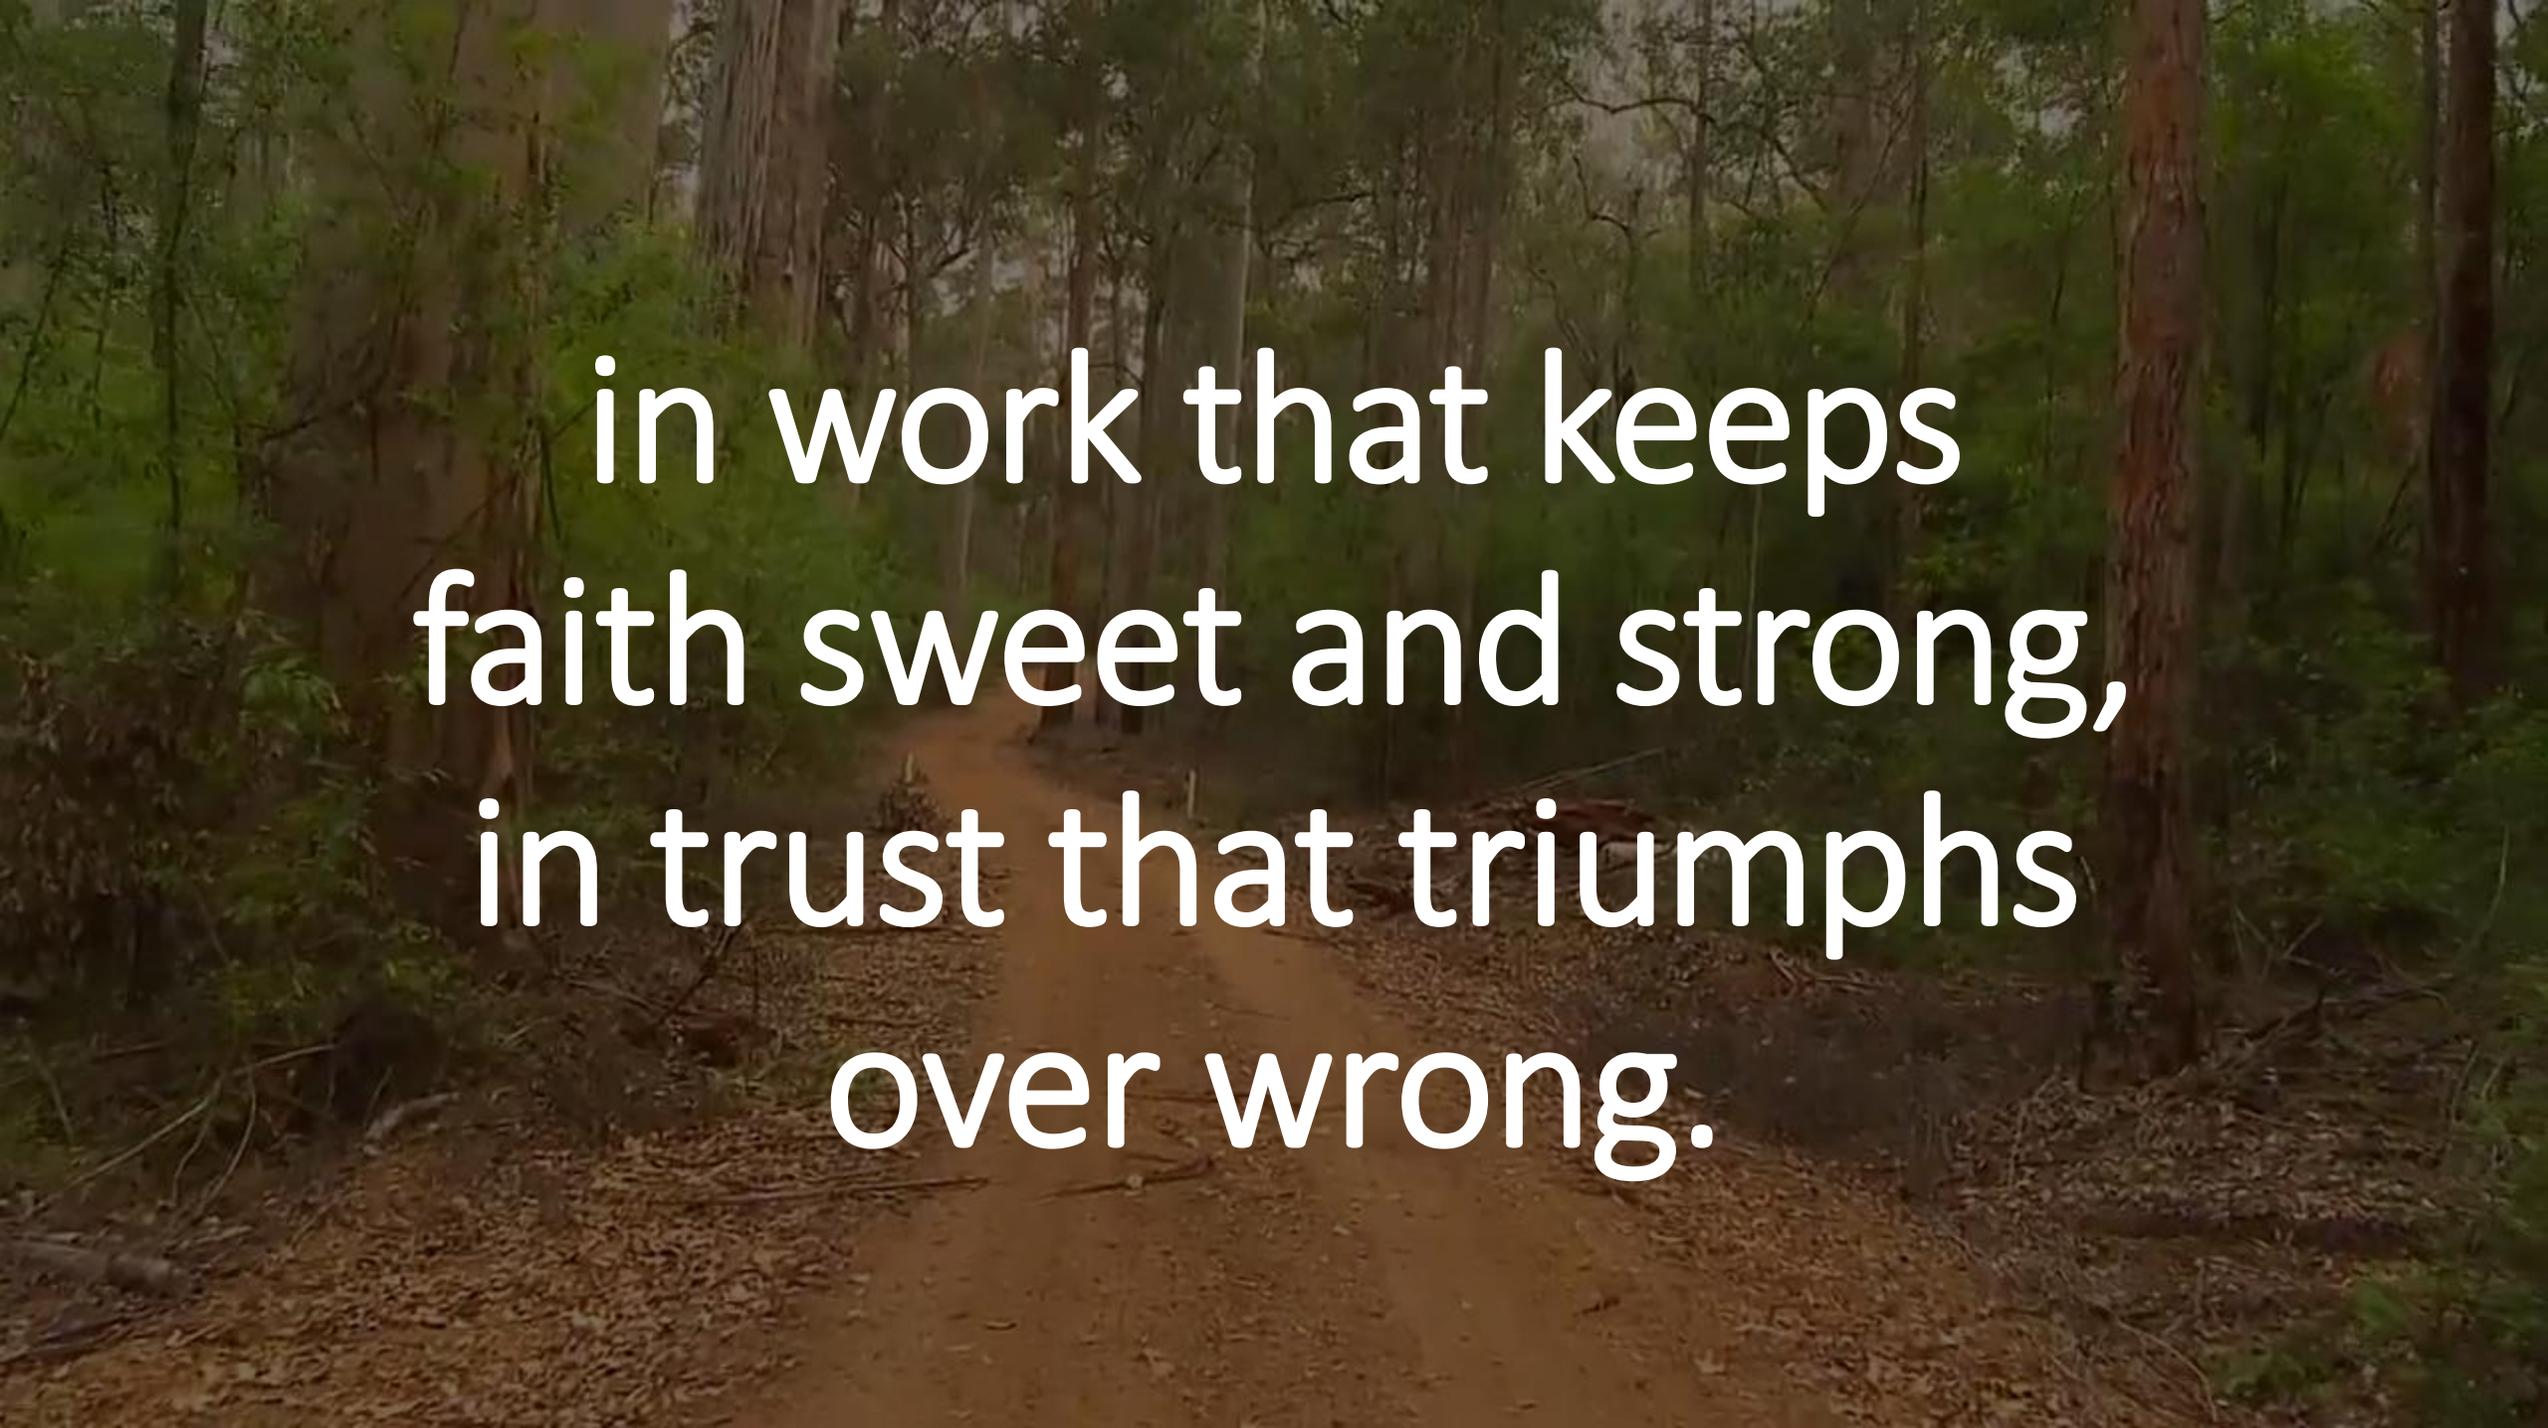

Help me the slow
of heart to move
by some clear, winning
word of love;

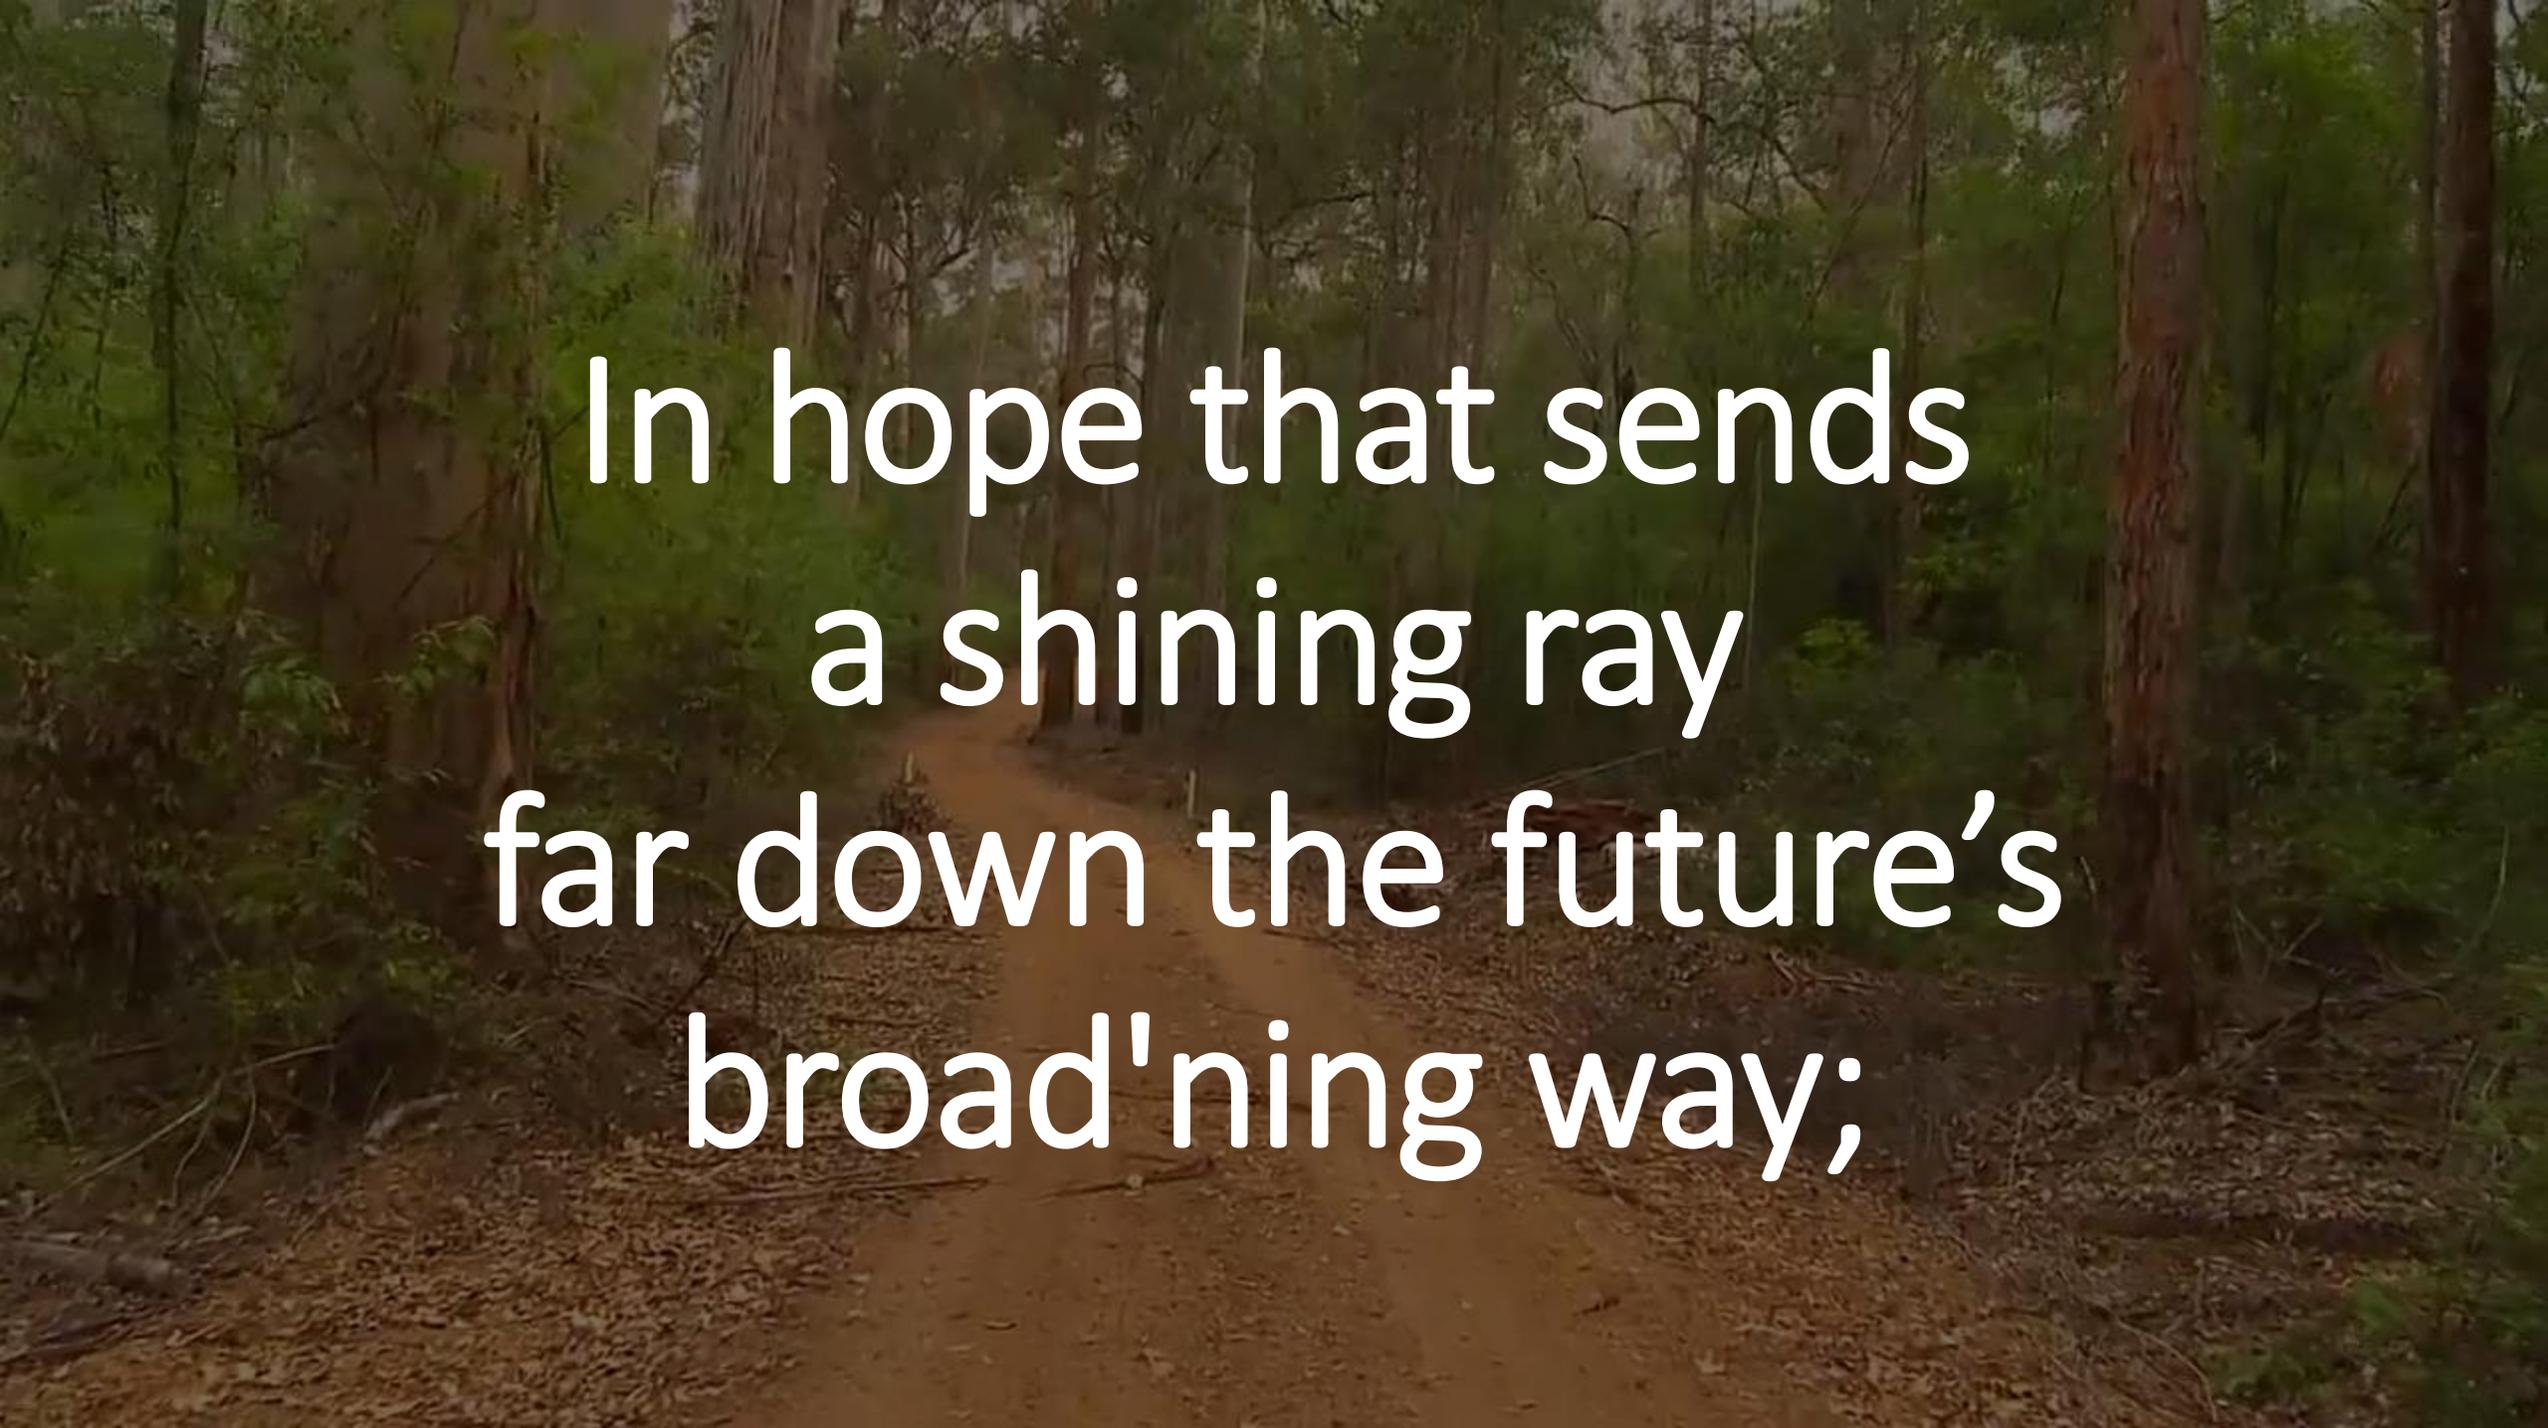

teach me the wayward
feet to stay,
and guide them in
the homeward way.

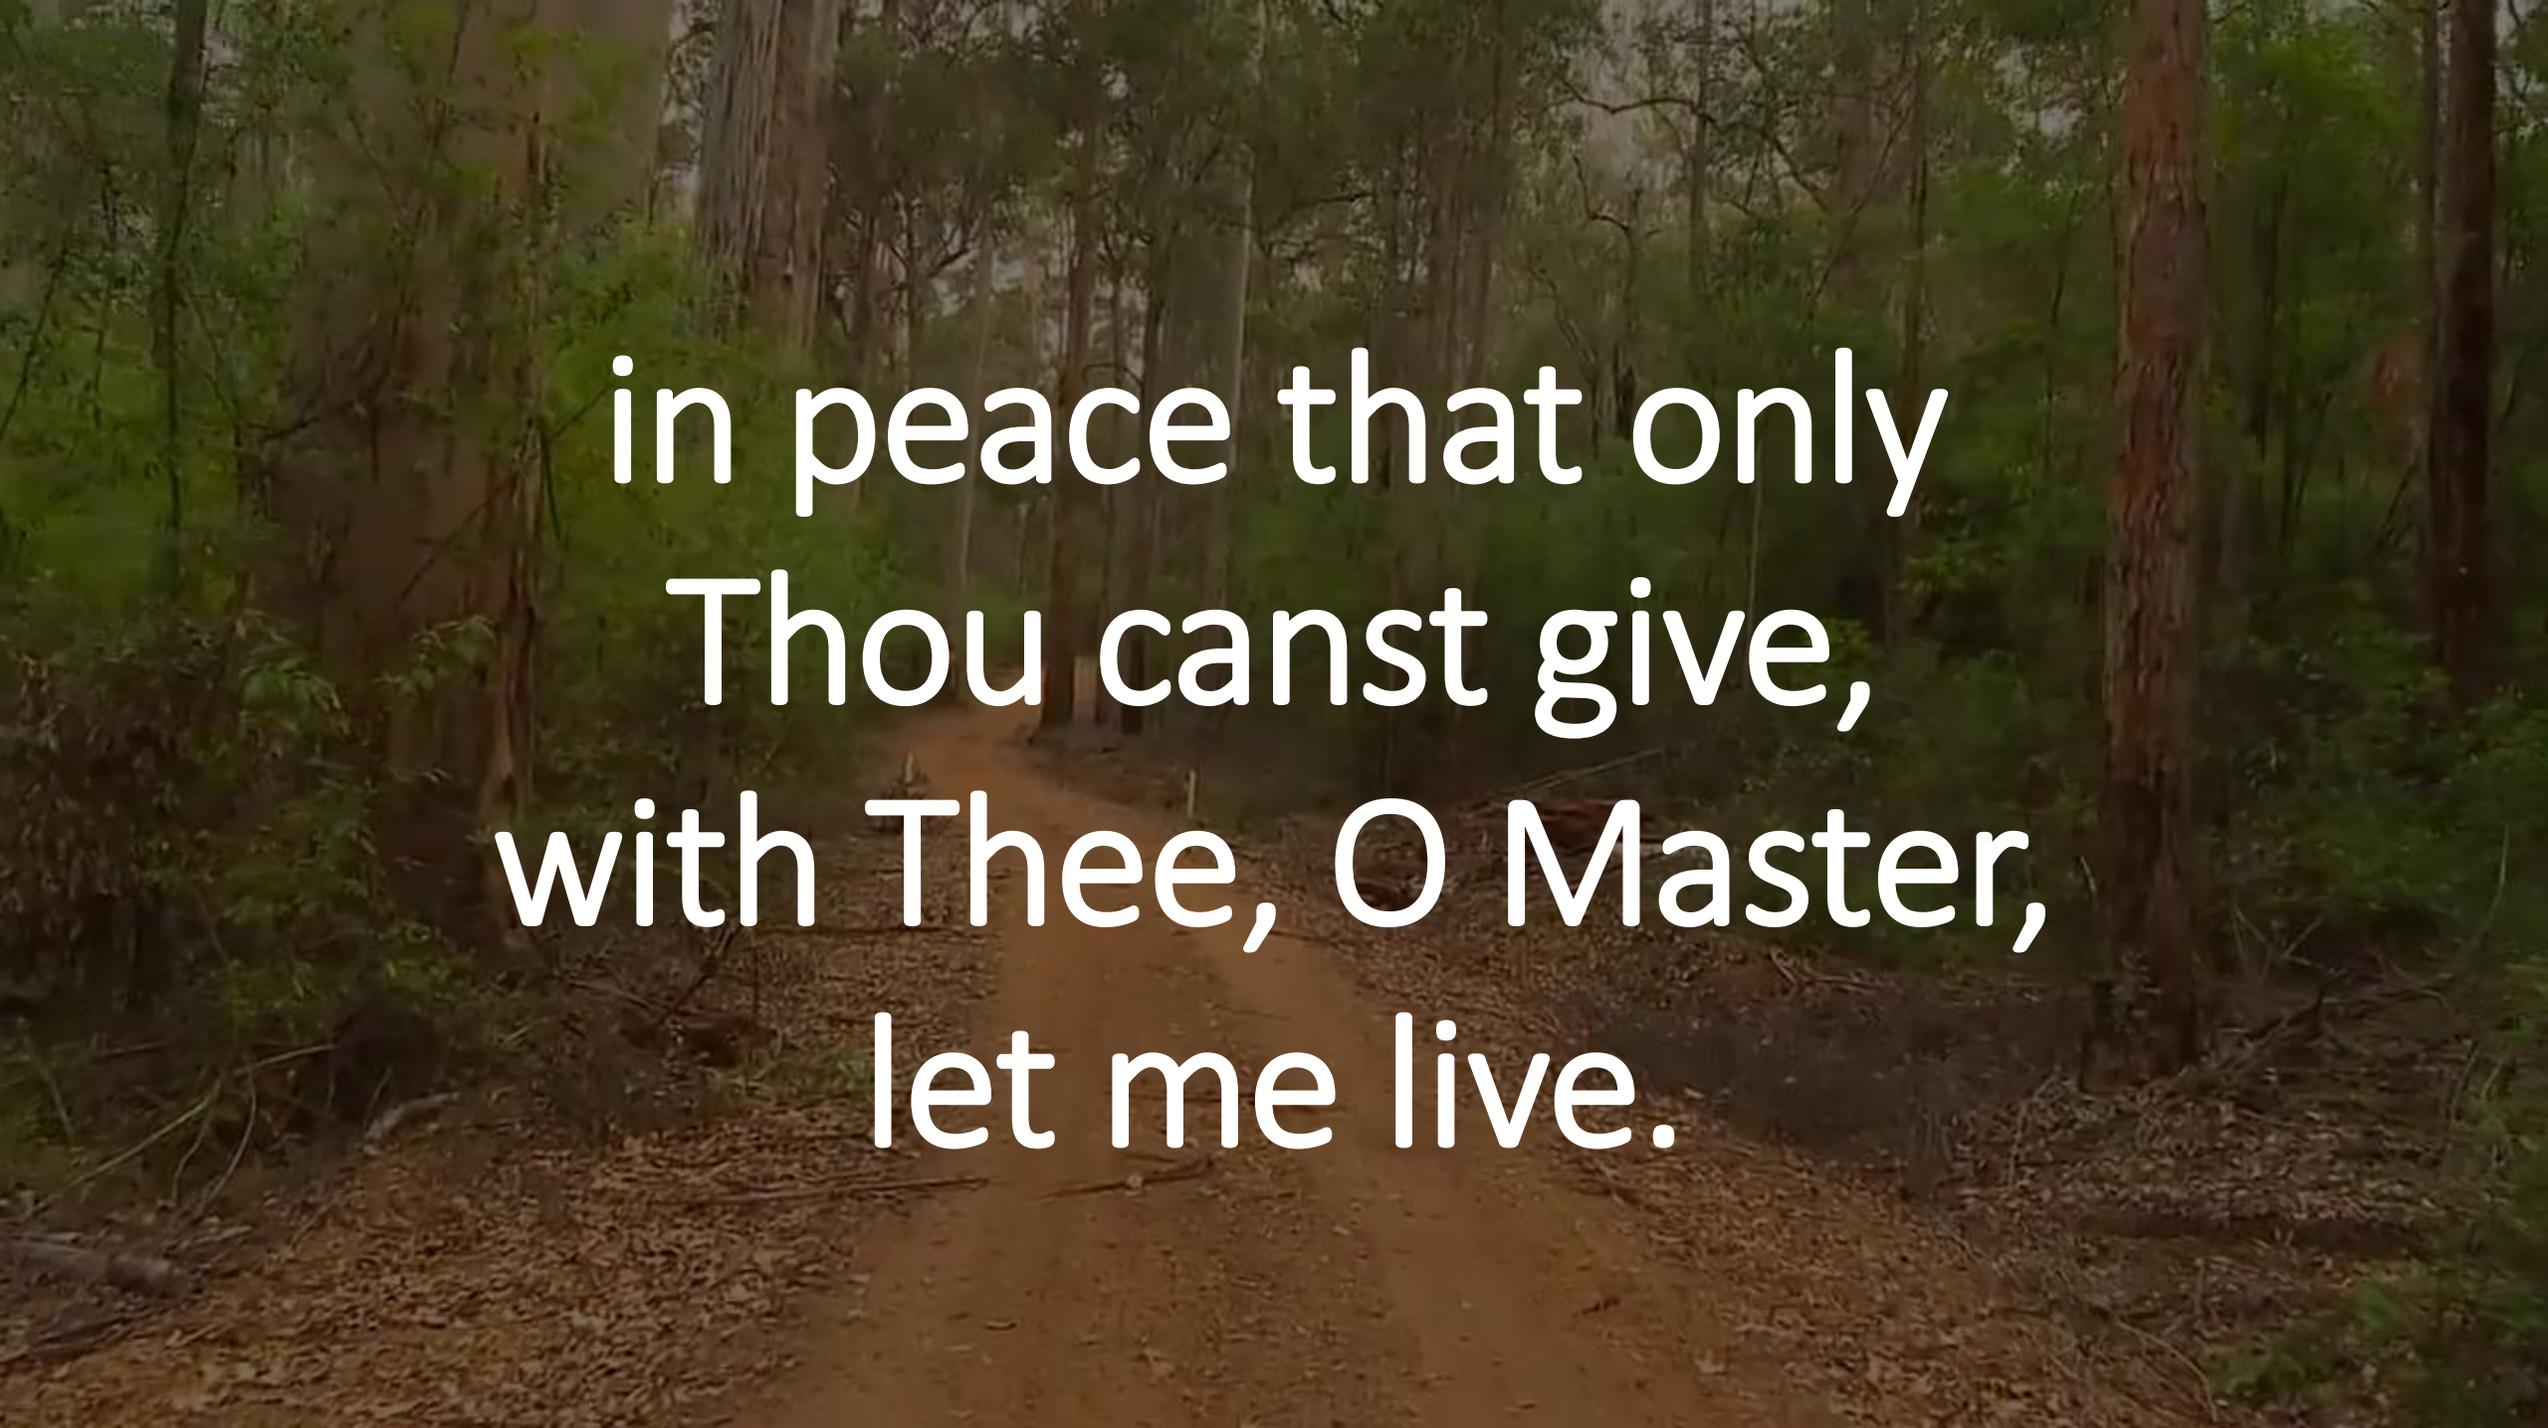

Teach me Thy patience,
still with Thee
in closer,
dearer company,

in work that keeps
faith sweet and strong,
in trust that triumphs
over wrong.

In hope that sends
a shining ray
far down the future's
broad'ning way;

in peace that only
Thou canst give,
with Thee, O Master,
let me live.

The background of the image is a dark blue night sky. At the top center, there is a bright, multi-pointed starburst. Below the starburst, the text "A CALL TO WORSHIP" is written in a large, blue, serif font. At the bottom of the image, there are silhouettes of two people in traditional attire, one standing and one kneeling, with a small object between them, suggesting a scene of worship or prayer.

A CALL TO WORSHIP

P. And I will sing praises
to You among the nations.

above the heavens,

P. And Your truth reaches
to the clouds.

All: Amen!

Our Father who art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy Name.
Thy kingdom come.
Thy will be done,
On earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
But deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever.

Amen.

Psalm 23

Jesus, Jesus, Jesus!

There's just something about that name!

Master, Savior, Jesus!

Like the fragrance after the
rain.

Jesus, Jesus, Jesus!

Let all Heaven and earth proclaim:

Kings and kingdoms
will all pass away,

But there's something
about that name!

Love Never Fails!

Thank God

for that!
